

Deaconess Mae Linda Johnson

Deaconess Mae Linda Johnson is originally from Hartsville, SC. Her family moved to Petersburg VA when she was three years old. She graduated from Petersburg High School. She lived in Petersburg VA until October 1989 when she moved to Maryland. She has three sisters and one brother.

Deacon Johnson has been married to Calvin Johnson for sixteen years; they have four children and five grandchildren. She is currently employed at the US Army Research Laboratory in Adelphi, MD. She served in the US Army Reserves for twenty-six years and retired in 2007.

Deacon Johnson is currently enrolled in How to Study the Bible for Yourself Part 1 and Public Speaking with Power and Might at the Evangel Cathedral Central Bible School in Upper Marlboro, MD. She attended John Tyler Community College in Chesterfield, VA, Prince Georges Community College, Prince George MD, and University of Maryland University College in College Park MD.

In 1980 Deacon Johnson joined Good Shepherd Baptist Church of Petersburg VA, where she served on the Senior Ladies Usher Board.

In 1992, Deacon Johnson joined the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Washington DC under the Leadership of H. Beecher Hicks. While at Metropolitan she served as an Usher.

In 2004, Deacon Johnson joined the Little Rock Baptist Church of Clinton MD. She serves as the President of the Culinary Committee, sings on the Vessels of Honor Praise and Worship Ministry, sings on the Mass and Adult Choirs, and active in the Women's Ministry. She is also a member of the Hospitality/Benevolent Ministry. Deacon Johnson was consecrated as a deaconess in October 2009 under the leadership of Reverend Daniel Reeves.

Her favorite scripture is Psalm 124-1 "If It had not been for the Lord who was on my side..."